

ANNUAL WHISTLEBLOWER REPORT TO THE GOVERNOR

TO: The Honorable Jared Polis, Governor

FROM: The State Personnel Board
Rick Dindinger, Director

PERIOD: July 1, 2022, through June 30, 2023

INTRODUCTION

The State Personnel Board provides this report pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-50.5-107 of the State Employee Protection Act (commonly referred to the “Whistleblower Act,” sometimes referred to as “SEPA”). The statute provides: “The state personnel board shall report annually to the governor concerning the complaints filed, hearings held, and actions taken pursuant to this article.” This report encompasses whistleblower complaints pending with the Board on July 1, 2022, and whistleblower complaints filed with the Board from July 1, 2022, through June 30, 2023. Unless necessary to indicate the posture of a pending matter, this report does not cover Board orders unrelated to the whistleblower complaints such as discovery orders or procedural orders. The Board is not aware of any appointing authority or supervisor receiving disciplinary action pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-50.5-104(4) during Fiscal Year 2022-2023.

SUMMARY CHART¹

² The State Personnel Board uses letters in its case numbering convention to indicate the type of appeal. “B” in the case numbering indicates matters where the employee has a mandatory right to a Board hearing, such as a loss of pay. “G” indicates an appeal of a grievance decision or other decision that does not impact base pay, status, or tenure. “S” indicates an appeal of a selection decision. Both G and S appeals are subject to the Board’s review process and may be set for an evidentiary hearing. A “(c)” in the case numbering indicates that separate appeals have been consolidated into a single matter.

³ Reasons include lack of jurisdiction, untimeliness, abandonment, and other procedural reasons.
