INTRODUCTION

The State Personnel Board provides this report pursuant to C.R.S. § 24-50.5-107 of the State Employee Protection Act (commonly referred to the “Whistleblower Act,” sometimes referred to as “SEPA”). ² The State Personnel Board uses letters in its case numbering convention to indicate the type of appeal. “B” in the case numbering indicates matters where the employee has a mandatory right to a Board hearing, such as a loss of pay. “G” indicates an appeal of a grievance decision or other decision that does not impact current base pay, status, or tenure. “S” indicates an appeal of a selection decision. Both G and S appeals are subject to the Board’s review process and may be set for an evidentiary hearing. A “(c)” in the case numbering indicates that separate appeals have been consolidated into a single matter.

³ Reasons include lack of jurisdiction, untimeliness, abandonment, failure to comply with Board Rules, failure to comply with ALJ orders, and other procedural reasons.
